Sir,

Sub: Non Implementation of the orders passed by Commission for SA/CPs – Non Compliance petitions received from Petitioners - Reg

1. I am to state that 2 numbers of non compliance petitions from your department is pending. It is for the Commission to render justice to the petitioner. For smooth and effective functioning of the RTI Act, 2005, It is requested that strict instructions is given to the officers concerned to ensure that suitable reply / information may be provided to the petitioner under intimation to the Commission to reduce the pendency of Non Compliance petitions received due to non implementation of orders passed for Second Appeal cases by the Commission.

2. It is also requested to evolve some kind of mechanism to monitor the implementation of the orders passed by the Commission which would minimize the pendency of Non Compliance petition filed by the petitioner in this Commission.

3. At the same time necessary instructions may also be given to the officers concerned to sensitize the Public Information Officers and the Appellate Authorities to be more vigilant in handling the RTI petitions.

Yours faithfully,

Registrar
